SERMON DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

MAIN POINT

---

The big idea of this passage is that thanksgiving and joy during significant trials come from our faith in God's faithfulness. And the main takeaway is to cultivate understanding of God, His promises, and His commands, in order that we might trust and obey (live faithfully), in order that we might walk in joyful thanksgiving whatever may come.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What were your thoughts on the text/sermon? What most stood out? How was it helpful? Confusing?
2. How do you usually respond to significant trials? How would others describe your disposition when life is hard? Have you ever had a supernatural joy through a difficult situation because you were surrounded by gospel faithfulness?
3. Have you ever had a trial made more difficult by faithlessness (yours or someone else's)?
4. Describe some ways that you have clearly seen God's faithfulness in your life.
5. Which aspect of God's faithfulness revealed in this passage (see outline above) has been most encouraging to you?
6. How do you respond to the idea of God as a perfectly faithful Father?
7. Have you ever met anyone as faithful as Epaphras? What do you think it would be like to spend time with him?
8. Faith in the gospel, faith-driven love for non-Christians, and faith that the gospel is the power of God are all essential ingredients for an evangelistic life. Which of those do you have/lack? How does that show up in your evangelism?
9. Do you think it would be easier to have been a Christian in Colossae at the time of this letter or in Minnesota today? Why?
10. Which aspect of Paul's faithful prayer is most and least natural for you? What can you do to grow in your prayer life?
11. In what way/s did the sermon help you see the greatness of God?
