SERMON DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

MAIN POINT

The big idea of this sermon is that the gospel is good news for every aspect of our lives forever. Christ is indeed above all and in all. And that is densely packed into these few verses, even as it is densely packed in all of Colossians. The main takeaway, then, is to learn to live more fully in light of the reality of the gospel.

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What were your thoughts on the text/sermon? What most stood out? How was it helpful? Confusing?
2. If an observer were to follow you around undetected for a full week, 24/7, what would they likely conclude is the most driving force in your life? What motivates you? What primarily shapes your decisions? What is your main frame of reference in life?
3. How often does some specific aspect of the gospel drive your choices?
4. In what area of your life does the gospel have the least impact/are you least looking through the gospel lens?
5. Which of the nine gospel expressions in our passage stands out the most and why? Which are you living most in light of?
6. How do you define "faith"? How does your definition compare to the non-Christians in your life?
7. Why is it important to be clear on the fact that faith is the conduit for God's saving grace?
8. Had you ever considered that faith is the conduct for forgiveness-grace and sanctifying-grace?
9. Have you ever met someone who believes the claims of Christianity to be myth or lies? What can you do about that?
10. How aware are you of how the gospel is being received around the world? Why would that be important?
11. How motivated are you to share the gospel? How often do you share it? Why not more?
12. How motivated are you by the gospel-hope that is laid up for you in heaven?
13. In what way/s did the sermon help you see the greatness of God?
