

The Great Missionary Hope : Matthew 28:19-20

Grace Church / APR 7, 2024 / Matthew Adams

Fulfilling the Great Commission means more than sending missionaries to evangelize the nations. Evangelism is a prerequisite, but not the end of the mission of the church. Baptism only initiates the long journey of discipleship. Scripture gives us hope that we are able to accomplish this enormous task because Christ has all authority in heaven and on earth, he defeated death, sin, and Satan at the cross, and he promised to be with us until the end of the age.

I. Missionary Biographies: John Eliot, William Carey

II. The Authority of Christ on Earth

III. Disciple the Nations

IV. Application